MOBILE SERVICES

MEET & GREET

Arrival in Libya can prove disconcerting and dangerous to travellers. Not only facing risk from opportunistic criminals, but also bureaucratic hurdles and traffic dangers.

Clients using our “meet and greet” service can be assured that their personnel will be met by an experienced security consultant who will assist their arrival and take them safely on to their destination.

Our meet & greet operatives are efficient and professional. They understand the challenges clients might face, and how to avoid them.

Where permissible, client personnel are met at the aircraft door and escorted through all arrival formalities. On departure client personnel will be escorted to the aircraft door after being escorted through all the departure formalities.

Following the “meet and greet” we transport client representatives to their hotel or an agreed drop off point, using our trained drivers. While in transit to the hotel or drop-off point our consultant will provide either a general overview of the security environment or a formal safety briefing per client requirements.

STATIC SERVICES

STATIC SECURITY

Safe and secure accommodation and worksites are a necessity for businesses operating in Libya.

Our experience of securing client infrastructure against all threats, leads to unrivalled client security, thus enhancing your business operations.

We design and implement physical and technological security solutions for client sites across Libya. Based on in-depth situational analysis of the area in which the client seeks to operate, we implement an effective security strategy, balancing deterrence, protection, and acceptance.

Our static security teams use a combination of local nationals and highly experienced expatriate consultants to provide robust security solutions to safeguard client assets.

SECURE ACCOMODATION

We are able to provide secure accommodation to clients who lack a permanent base in Libya.

The accommodation options available - depending on client requirements and the security situation- range from 5* Hotels to our Tripoli safe house.

CRISIS SERVICES

EVACUATION SERVICES

Although we provide intelligence security services to mitigate risk by avoidance of high threat areas, there are situations where low-profile and discrete security measures are no longer sufficient and evacuation may be necessary.

We have experience of conducting the extraction of client representatives from high threat environments.
